

Figure S3: Overlaps among cancer network 1 identified from different QCM parameter settings. The numbers in each the upper row indicate the size of the network after merging. The two numbers in the lower row are γ and β values respectively for each QCM mining results. The overlapping area of any two circles indicates the number of common genes shared with the two networks.

